

Dear Dermatology Colleague,

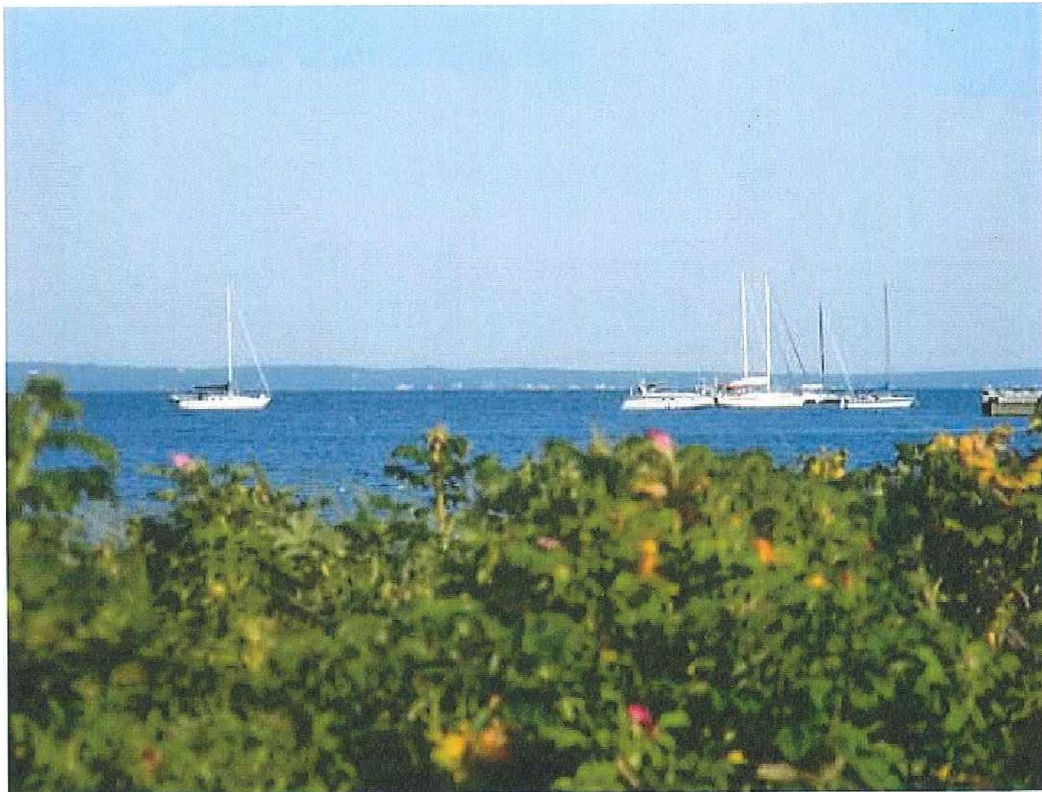

We are writing to invite you to consider an amazing opportunity to join our two physician dermatology practice on the south coast of Massachusetts. We work within a large multispecialty practice of over 100 doctors in more than 21 specialties.

At the moment, each of us works only three days per week seeing medical and surgical dermatology patients, with earnings in the $600,000 range and one year to full partnership. We do not take hospital call. We have also recently added laser treatments to our practice.

To those of you who are not familiar with this area, we are situated in one of the most naturally beautiful coastal areas in New England where it is easy to find many communities of family friendly, health-conscious and welcoming people. Moreover, we are only a one-hour drive from Boston and 35 minute drive from Providence, RI.

So, since a “picture is worth a 1,000 words” (especially to a dermatologist), here are a few...

A local harbor..

Sincerely,
Karen S. McGinnis, MD
